

St. George Antiochian Orthodox Church of Boston

Church School / Parent Contract

At St. George Church School we aim to serve our parish community by providing quality religious education to our children in an Orthodox Christian context that will contribute to their growth as committed and responsible followers of Jesus Christ.

As Church School Staff we promise to;

- Provide an enriching curriculum and a dedicated staff of volunteer teachers.
- Recognize that God is at work in our class room to guide and enable us.
- Set high standards of service and behavior that embrace the basic Christian Values of caring, respect, compassion, honesty and responsibility.
- Instruct students in the basic skills needed for a good start on our journey as disciples of Jesus Christ.
- Teach and guide our students as they develop into faithful Orthodox Christians and dependable members of our parish.

As a Parent, I promise to:

- Co-operate with and encourage the Church School staff in achieving their aims as outlined in the above statement.
- See that my child attend class on time every Sunday during the Church School term. Discourage my child from participating in activities i.e. sports etc. on Sunday that would conflict with his or her religious education and church attendance.
- Take an active interest in my child’s religious education and progress by asking what is being taught in the classroom and reviewing the books and lessons.
- See that my child is properly prepared for class having completed any assignments at home.
- Teach by example at home the basic Christian values of love, compassion and respect that are being reinforced by the Church School staff at St. George.
- Be an example to my child by loving God, caring for others, praying and fasting at home, worshipping at church, receiving the sacraments, supporting the parish and providing a Christ centered home and family experience.
